GOOD RACING AT HARLEM.

There was handsome racing at Harlem Thursday afternoon. Intelligence in speculation scored all around. The saddest blow at talented obstinacy was over the reasonable victory of Botanic in the closing event. Four favorites won as they should have won. There was a healthy ring with virile action and much movement in the finishes and elasticity and enthusiasm in the stands.

George Long of Bashford Manor fame introduced to the Chicago public his highly bred Hindoo—Red and Blue colt. Byron McClelland, brother to Sallie McClelland. The colt was in the owners handicap at a mile with 75 pounds and Barney Schreiber's keen Canadian boy, J. Woods, on his back.

The knowing division thought that 1 to 10 was the proper price against him. Schreiber put $1000 on the colt, $500 at 7 to 10 and $500 at 3 to 5. The ring, however, had notions of its own and overlaid itself. Master Woods took Byron McClelland to the front soon after the start and setting a pace to suit himself, won pulling up the colt running the mile in 1:41. Byron McClelland could have run the race in 1:40. Byron McClelland is a grand looking, dark chestnut and moves like a machine.

Immigrants carried off both the handicaps. J. K. Redmond had his Hindoo—La Favorita colt, John Havlin, in the nine furlong event and the best he had to beat was Indra and Gracie C. The public thought well of Havlin with Tommy Burns up and he was heavily backed at odds on. Indra and Gracie C went out together and had it hammer and tongs to the stretch turn where John Havlin passed them and won in a jocular sort of way in 1:54. Indra and Gracie C fought it out to a finish and the former—thanks to Caywood's powerful finish—landed second by a mere nose.

The only real exciting finish of the afternoon came out of the second race, a five-furlong scramble for two-year-olds. Eugene Leigh's long overdue filly, Bonita, was the favorite. With anything like good racing luck she would have won. As it was, Globe II beat Bonita. Shipman, the maiden of the picky, jumped out in front early and set a clicking pace to the stretch turn. There was a general closing up there and a lot of jostling in the drive for positions. Caywood got Globe II most skillfully out of the melee, and, riding one of his powerful finishes, landed the colt. Soden rode a bad race on Bonita.

Little Ocean, carrying Tommy Burns and the flashy colors of "Counsellor" Bill Brien's, was favorite for the first race. He won in tintinabulating style.

The fourth race was a gift for that good horseman Jim Davis. He started Enchanter and Bill Arnett and they finished one—two.

Barney Schreiber's clever kid Woods advanced another notch in public estimation by his skillful ride on Botanic in the last race. The youngster placed the Perkins colt like a veteran, stole a march on his field about the far turn, skinned the rails, and secured a winning lead. Had young Woods waited for the natural spread at the head of the stretch before he came through, Black Jack would surely have won.

The afternoon was perfect, a crowd of 3500 was out and the sport was far above the average. Starter Dick Dwyer was in excellent form.

THURSDAY'S MONTANA RACING.

BUTTE, Mont., Aug. 12.—Thursday's weather and track were perfect. The crowd was small, owing to the counter attraction of Hon. W. J. Bryan in the city, but the betting was very heavy. The results were:

2:21 class, pacing—Bessie Rankin won in straight heats. Time, 2:16½, 2:19.
2:19 class, trotting—Reliant won the second and third heats, and Fantasia the first. Time, 2:17½, 2:18½, 2:20½.

7 furlongs, running—Jim Blackburn, 103 (Lamley), won; Gussie, second; Mike Rice, third. Time, 1:30.

6 furlongs, running—Oak Leaf, 104 (Wilson), won; Howard, second; Lady Hurst, third. Time, 1:16½.

7 furlongs, running—Tim Murphy, 101 (Morse), won; Encino, second; All Smoke, third. Time, 1:31.

3 furlongs, running—Rattle, 106 (Sullivan), won; Red S, second; Harry N, third. Time, 35½.

5 furlongs, running—Annabell, 113 (Haverly), won; Dif, second; Hanford, third. Time, 1:03½.

Bryan speaks at the track tomorrow. There will be no races in consequence.

Its business is purely one of transmitting bets to its principals upon the tracks of action and consequently a legal business.

Winner—B. g. 5, by Three Cheers—Charity.
Start good. Won driving. George Rose outclassed his field. The race was bad and the winner did not appear to be of much account. Purse Proud ran a game race. He was hindered through the stretch by Rose swerving. Squan is improving. He was badly handled and should have been closer up. Endeavor was shut off at the half and lost several lengths. Contractor and Dye made up ground throughout. Trayant favors a route and was hustled off stride and was short.

596 FOURTH RACE—1-2 Mile. 2-year-olds. Fillies. The Vestal Stakes. $1500 Guaranteed.

*Disqualified for foul. †Coupled in betting.
Winner—B. f. by Kinglike—Juliette.
Start good. Won easily. L'Alouette was best but luckily placed throughout. Abundant ran a much improved race. The distance suited her. Tenny was poorly handled, pocketed on the stretch turn and shut off when making her run. She appeared to be galloping to the stretch. She was easily second best. Sagacity lost at the start, made a wide stretch turn and was closing strong. Gray Belle showed speed. Daisy Cutter was outclassed. Logistic was not bridle wise.

597 FIFTH RACE—1 Mile. $600 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Selling.

Winner—B. g. 3, by Ventilator—Nut Brown.
Start straggling. Won driving. Damian seemed the best on the racing as seen. He got off poorly. Wolhurst probably made his run too soon. Both outclassed their company. It was a grand race. Souffle was smothered in the sprint through the stretch. Volley, as usual, came at the end. Premier was overweighted.
Scratched—Tom Cromwell, 111; Ray del Tierra, 91; Sunup, 110; Dorian, 106.

Winner—Br. g. 5, by Glengary—Bessie Belle.
Start good. Won easily. W B was well nursed and ran over the pacemakers in the stretch. He favors a route and is in good form. Dorian is good but a rogue. He killed himself off by setting a terrific pace. Marshall suffered from being sent out after him. Myrtle Harkness ran a good race and showed much improvement. She evidently favors a route.
Scratched—Flames, 103.
Overweights—W B, 3 pounds.

599 SEVENTH RACE—1 Mile. $600 added. 3-year-olds and upward. Allowances.

Winner—Ch. c, 4, by Bramble—Fonsie.
Start good. Won easily. Tom Cromwell outclassed his field. He is, when ready, a wonderful finisher and likes a route. Tierra sulked through the stretch. He runs better in blinkers. He ran without them to-day. Marsian raced surprisingly well. With a good ride he would have been second. Tinge was eased up last sixteenth and very weakly handled. Honor was very badly handled, choked and misused throughout. She was buck jumping in a pocket to last sixteenth. Albert L ran a good race for him.
Scratched—Soufie, 111; Dorian, 106; Contractor, 96; Savarin, 91.

Post 3 minutes. Start good. Won easily; second handily. Hanlon had the speed of the party. Lake View Palace faltered in the run home. James Munroe closed very fast at the end. Mohawk Prince had no speed at all. Hurl dropped out of the race after going a half-mile.
Scratched—Mazarin, 110; Kinnikinnick, 109.

Post 6 minutes. Start fair. The first five were all driving hard. Naviculine ran an excellent race. She will be hard to beat next time out. Kilt, well ridden, got up in the last hundred yards. Ruby Lips looked like a winner at the sixteenth pole, but she faltered in the last hundred yards. Barracan was messed about. He was on the outside the entire route. Restorer was never a contender.

Blueaway found no trouble in disposing of his field. He was well in hand all the way. Central Trust could not untrack himself in the going.

Time, 24 1/2, 48 1/2, 1:01 1/2, 1:14 1/2, 1:28.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Little Minch—Ocean.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won driving hard; second, third and fourth driving as hard. Little Ocean was best handled. Burns laid behind the leaders and let Song Bird and Lady Dixon race themselves to pieces. Song Bird was reeling all over the track at the finish. Three-quarters is as far as she wants to go. Lady Dixon ran an honest race. Caywood finished strong on her, too. Terrific got into a jamb on the first turn and it took her a long time to get on her stride. She can win soon. La Crescent was under a drive all the way. Constant is far from fit and was poorly handled. Amanda got away running but hadn't enough speed to keep up.

Scratched—Trixie C. 105.

Overweights—Terrific, 5 pounds.

Time, 24 1/2, 49 1/2, 1:02 1/2.

Winner—Br. g. by Little Minch—Gwendoline.
Post 5 minutes. Start fair. The first five were under keen pressure. Bonito was the best. Soden got her off badly and rode a bad race. He was weak from recent reducing. Caywood rode a perfect race on Globe II. It was the ride that won. Shipman had a lot of speed, but used it at the wrong time. He should win the next maiden race. Miss Kinbello had a rough journey. She was badly interfered with and had to pull up on the far turn. There was a general closing up at the head of the stretch and Burns, on Li Hung Chang, was nearly thrown over the fence. The colt is a big, long striding fellow, but appears to be of little account. He got a running start and had no excuses.

Winner—Ch. c. 4, by Hindoo—Red and Blue.
Post 30 seconds. Start good. Won galloping; second, third and fourth driving to the limit. Byron McClelland was the best. He was cleverly handled too. He had a world of speed and could have run a second faster if urged. Dockstader ran an honest race. He propped a trifle though the last sixteenth. Sidonian was killed off chasing Byron McClelland. Ridden with judgment he surely would have been second. Terranet was almost thrown over the fence by Dockstader on the first turn.

Time, 24 1/2, 49 1/2, 1:01 1/2, 1:15.

Winner—B. g. 3, by Carnegie—Banana.
Post 8 minutes. Start good for all but Aureola. Won easily; second, third and fourth driving. Enchanter got away running and tiptoed his field the first half. He is a fast horse and handles weight like a gentleman when things go his way. Bill Arnett ran a good race. He is a good maiden and should win his next. Tidiness finished fast. She was bumped out of it and made up a lot of ground in the stretch. Aureola, slow to begin, ran a fair race. She could not have won had she been given a flying start. Santa Cruz was prominent in all the breakaways, but ran like a mule. La Trappe and Sadie K both showed a good bit of speed. Both can win in slow company.

Scratched—Jake Zimmerman, 130.

Winner—B. c. 4, by Hindoo—La Favorita.
Post 1 minute. Start good. Won with something left; second and third driving and out to the last ounce. John Havlin was much the best. He galloped in behind Indra and Gracie C the first part of it and came on and won when ready. He is a colt of class and will be hard to beat from now on. Caywood outrode Donaldson at the end. Gracie C ran a good race. She hung to Indra all the way and stood the closing drive gamely. Indra ran his race. It was much better than his last performance, too. Sandoval might as well have stayed in the stable. He was out-classed.

Winner—B. c. 3, by Perkins—Louise W.
Post 18 minutes. Start good. Won hand ridden merely, but all out; second, third and fourth doing their best. Black Jack was probably the best. He got into a pinch shortly after the start and had to be pulled up. Sloan nursed him carefully and he made up a lot of ground by degrees. Botanic was also well ridden. Little Woods placed him nicely and he came with a rush on the end. Olivia L ran a good race. She is rounding out and should win her next. Gallante caused a delay at the post. He did well for three-quarters. Elsie Ferguson had a lot of early speed, but tired when asked the question. Roger B ran below the notch. So did Warren Point. The latter may have staled a bit.

Scratched—C H Whelan, 100; La Princessa, 104.

Winner—Br. h, 6, by Grenada—Blonde.

Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won driving. Sim W was pinched in the last fifty yards and had to be pulled up. Letcher would have won in another stride or two. Balk Line ran a good game race, though. It was always a contest of three.

Scratched—Roosevelt, 117; Kittie B, 117; Old Center, 122.

Winner—B. f, by Hindoo—Fay.

Post 6 minutes. Start good. Won driving. There was much action, too, behind the leaders. Mary Wilgus was sprawling badly all the last furlong. The plunge on Elliott was misplaced. Fonlante was closing at the end. Moonhawk showed some late speed.

Winner—B. c, 3, by Lew Weir—Seclusion.

Post 5 minutes. Start good. Won in a gallop; next two driving. At the half mile pole Calculator swerved into J P B, throwing him on the fence, causing him to wrench his stifle and knocking him out of the race. Frontman received a more vigorous ride than when last out. Satyr was a good horse though lucky. Yelvington wasn't.

Winner—Ch. g, 5, by Algerine—Nellie Ransom.
Post 5 minutes. Start fair. Won ridden out; second driving. Basquil showed a lot of speed for seven furlongs. Then he began to tire. The colt wants a strong rider to do his best. C S Bush had a chance at the eighth pole, but was bumped and never got into his stride again. Jack Bradley ran well for seven furlongs. Ransom was best.

Winner—B. g, by Prosper—Glen Pearl.
Post 8 minutes. Start good. Won ridden out; second all out and driving. Barrisso, of badly, had to run around every horse in the race. The first two were lucky. Found showed a great turn of speed but stopped badly in the stretch. Caddie C is insane and was badly handled.
Scratched—Decapo, 106.

Winner—B. f, 3, by Ben d'Or—Quickset.
Post 7 minutes. Start fair. Won cleverly; second ridden out. Amelia Fonso never had a chance after the start. Silver Set crowded her on the fence early and every time she tried to get through, she was cut off. She will not race from behind. Nick Carter was the best. With an even break he should have won. Braw Scot and Neutral are both improving enough to deceive the public.

Start poor. Won driving; second and third driving also. Marplot was gaining at every stride. Mystery was almost left. Marplot is an in and outer. His race was below the notch. Corder II is a fast colt, but is not too partial to a route. Beguile ran a bad race.

Winner—Ch. c, 4, by Audrain—The Wraith.
Start good. The first three were driving to the limit and all out. Audrax squeezed through a small hole in the stretch. Hartford Boy was under restraint to the stretch. Better ridden he might have won. Winsome was short. She holds the same kind safe from now on. Sedan gave it up when pinched.

Winner—Br. c, by Hindoo—Alga.
Start good. Won easily; second cleverly; Macy went to the front when ready. He outclassed his field and simply toyed with it. Our Johnny ran a clever race. The Elector killed whatever chance he had trying to stay with Macy.
Scratched—Moncreith, 107.
